

JOINTLY ORGANISED BY

LEARNING for CHANGE AND INNOVATION

WORLD CONGRESS

7-9 NOVEMBER 2016 ADELAIDE, SOUTH AUSTRALIA

CONGRESS SUPPORTERS

the practical business school

“Bininj to Bininj”: supporting sustainable pathways into higher education through the engagement of Aboriginal researchers in Australia.

Presented by Millie Olcay, Dean Yibarbuk and Seraine Namundja

November 2016, Adelaide, SA

- Acknowledgement of Country and Welcome
- Introduction - 'Manbolh' activity
- Methodology – what we did and 'research tools' used - 'The Five Rights' – Right People, Right Time, Right Place, Right Language, Right Way – a resource developed from a Community Governance Training program in Maningrida presented at the Garma Forum in 2004 by JET Centre board & staff in Maningrida
- Reporting back– butcher's paper and then open discussion
- Questions and answers – post-it activity
- Summary - 'rocks in a billabong' activity

Thank you for participating today

Whole of Community Engagement Initiative

Australian Centre for INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGES
& EDUCATION

CHARLES DARWIN
UNIVERSITY

Batchelor
Institute

NAILSMA
NORTH AUSTRALIAN INDIGENOUS
LAND AND SEA
MANAGEMENT
ALLIANCE

Northern Territory Government

If you would like to get in contact with us, please email us at:

millie.olcay@cdu.edu.au

deanyibarbuk@warddeken.org.au

Or feel free to take a business card

